ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 12th September, 2007)

Learned counsel for the petitioner granted time on his request to obtain instruction regarding pendency of the suit but today, the Court has been informed that in spite of the best efforts made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner has not responded. According to him it appears that he is not interested in the matter. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as the counsel appearing for the petitioner has no instructions dismissed as such.
